On Thursday 16 May, the puppet show "Eliot and Isabella and the secret of the lighthouse" will take place at the Biemenhorst community centre (Willi-Pattberg-Ring 2). Children aged four and over can look forward to an exciting adventure about friendship. The puppet show starts at 4.00 pm and will be performed by the Marmelock puppet theatre from Hanover.

Content:

The puppet show is about the rat boy Eliot, who is sitting on the train pissed off because he has to spend his holiday on the stupid island of Ratzekoog. But when he arrives, he realises that Isabella is there too. The joy doesn't last long, however, because Bock Bockwurst and his gang get up to no good. When the lighthouse starts to be haunted, things get dicey. But Fiete Flunder comes to the rescue of the two rat children and gets them out of trouble.

Tickets for the puppet show are available from the theatre office (Meckenemstraße 10, 46395 Bocholt). The ticket price is €6.00. With a family pass, children only pay €3.00.
