Wedding ceremony in the historic town hall

© Stadt Bocholt

The wedding room in the historic town hall is a popular place to get married.

Getting married is one of life's unforgettable moments! In Bocholt, couples can say "Yes" to each other in the wedding room of the historic town hall (photo) on the market square.

On request, wedding ceremonies can also be held in the "Hotel Residenz" or in the Bocholt Textile Museum.

Opening hours of the registry office:

Mon - Thurs: 8 am - 5 pm

Friday: 8 am - 12.30 pm

(No appointments for marriages on Fridays)

Please note: The wedding date can be booked at the earliest one calendar year in advance.

Please make a reservation by e-mail.

Would you just like to make an appointment?

Then select the appropriate topic for your appointment on this page.

Do I need an appointment or can I drop by without one?

You must book an appointment in advance so that we can help you with your personal enquiry.

Why is a distinction made between people with German and foreign citizenship when making appointments?

The differentiation between persons with German and foreign citizenship is mainly due to the different legal requirements.

Depending on their country of origin, persons with foreign citizenship may be subject to different regulations and require different documents for the procedures.

This distinction enables us to process all enquiries individually and efficiently in accordance with the relevant regulations.
